2021 Regular Session

McMahen

Abstract: Requires certain expenses in DeSoto Parish to be paid from the criminal court fund of the judicial district in which DeSoto Parish is located.

Present law requires all or part of the expenses of the office of judge, but not the salary of the judge, and the expenses of the office of district attorney for the judicial district in which Red River Parish is located, and all or part of the salaries of the employees of those offices to be paid from the criminal court fund of the judicial district in which Red River Parish is located.

Proposed law retains present law and requires all or part of the expenses of the office of judge, but not the salary of the judge, and the expenses of the office of district attorney for the judicial district in which DeSoto Parish is located, and all or part of the salaries of the employees of those offices to be paid from the criminal court fund of the judicial district in which DeSoto Parish is located.
