

1 July 24, 2009, when it rose from six dollars and fifty-five cents per hour to seven dollars and 2 twenty-five cents per hour; and

3 WHEREAS, states are not required to create minimum wage laws and if a state does 4 not have a set minimum wage rate then the federal minimum wage rate of seven dollars and 5 twenty-five cents per hour will apply; and

6 WHEREAS, when states have created minimum wage laws that are lower than the 7 federal minimum wage then the federal minimum wage rate will apply for workers covered 8 under the Fair Labor Standards Act; however, if a state's minimum wage rate is higher than 9 the federal minimum wage rate then the state's higher minimum wage rate will apply; and

10 WHEREAS, Louisiana is one of those states that currently does not have any 11 minimum wage rate laws, and therefore the current federal minimum wage rate of seven 12 dollars and twenty-five cents per hour applies in this state; and

13 WHEREAS, there have been discussions in Washington, D.C. about potentially 14 increasing the minimum wage rate to fifteen dollars per hour gradually by 2025; and

15 WHEREAS, if this comes to fruition, Louisiana would not need to act on a state level 16 and create minimum wage laws increasing the rate; however, with uncertainty at the federal 17 level, the state must take action by at least studying the feasibility of increasing the 18 minimum wage rate statewide; and

19 WHEREAS, one of the arguments for increasing the minimum wage rate is that the 20 cost of living has continuously increased while the minimum wage rate has remained the 21 same since 2009; and

22 WHEREAS, some proponents of a minimum wage increase have argued that 23 individuals who earn higher wages have a lesser need to rely on state and federal 24 government expenditures, which would result in projected reductions in these expenditures; 25 and

26 WHEREAS, proponents have also argued that an increase in wages is beneficial to 27 both companies and employees because higher wages would improve employee morale, 28 which in turn would increase employee retention and reduce hiring and training costs; and

1 WHEREAS, some opponents of a minimum wage increase have argued that 2 increasing minimum wage would force business owners, who would be unable to afford an 3 increased rate, to lay off employees, thus subsequently raising unemployment rates; and

4 WHEREAS, opponents have also argued that increasing minimum wage would 5 increase the price of consumer goods; and

6 WHEREAS, all of these varying viewpoints, and more, need to be studied and 7 considered in order to determine if it is feasible to raise the minimum wage rate in this state.

8 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 9 establish the Minimum Wage Task Force to study the feasibility of increasing the minimum 10 wage rate in the state and to submit a written report of its findings and recommendations to 11 the Legislature of Louisiana not later than thirty days prior to the convening of the 2022
12 Regular Session.

13 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the membership of the task force shall be as

28 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force shall convene its first meeting by 29 September 1, 2021, and shall meet as frequently as it deems necessary for the timely 30 performance of its duties.

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force shall study and make 2 recommendations on matters that include but are not limited to the following:

- 3 (1) The advantages and disadvantages of increasing the minimum wage rate.

8 minimum wage rate.
- 9 (5) The statistical impact of other states increasing their minimum wage rate and 10 the effect on businesses and employees in the state and the state's economy.

11 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to
