2021 Regular Session

Substitute for Original House Bill No. 180 by Representative Goudeau as proposed by the House Committee on Labor and Industrial Relations

This document reflects the content of a substitute bill but is not in a bill form; page numbers in this document DO NOT correspond to page numbers in the substitute bill itself.

To enact R.S. 23:1601.1, relative to unemployment compensation; to provide for benefit eligibility conditions; to provide for verification of attendance at employment interviews; to provide for interview verification forms; to provide for the promulgation of rules; to provide for definitions; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 23:1601.1 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§1601.1. Interview attendance verification

A.(1) When a claimant is scheduled for an employment interview and the claimant fails, without good cause shown, to attend the interview, his failure to attend shall be reported by the employer to the administrator.

(2) After a second failure to appear for any employment interview, the claimant's failure shall be reported by the employer to the administrator. Upon the second failure and a determination that good cause was not shown, the administrator may consider the claimant's eligibility to receive benefits.

(3) For the purpose of this Section, "good cause" means any action or circumstance which, in the considered judgment of the administrator, was not within the control of the claimant and was the direct cause of the claimant's failure to attend the scheduled interview.

B. An employer may submit a completed interview verification form, which shall constitute sufficient proof of the claimant attending an interview.

C. The Louisiana Workforce Commission shall prescribe the interview verification form and the form shall set forth all of the following:

(1) The claimant's first and last name.

(2) The employer's or company's name, physical address, and telephone number.

(3) The interviewer's name and telephone number, if different from the employer's or company's.

(4) The position for which the claimant is being interviewed.

(5) The interviewer's signature.

D. The Louisiana Workforce Commission shall promulgate all rules as are necessary to facilitate the implementation of the use of the interview verification form, including but not limited to all of the following:

(1) The creation of the interview verification form.

(2) The manner and method in which the Louisiana Workforce Commission will provide the interview verification form to employers.

(3) The manner and method by which employers can submit the completed interview verification form to the Louisiana Workforce Commission.

HB Draft

2021 Regular Session

Abstract: Provides relative to the verification of attendance at employment interviews.

Proposed law provides that when a claimant is scheduled for an employment interview and the claimant fails, without good cause shown, to attend the interview, his failure to attend shall be reported by the employer to the administrator.

Proposed law provides that after a second failure to appear for any employment interview, the employer shall report the claimant's failure to appear to the administrator. Proposed law further provides that upon the second failure and a determination that good cause was not shown, the administrator may consider the claimant's eligibility to receive benefits.

Proposed law provides that for the purpose of proposed law, good cause means any action or circumstance which, in the considered judgment of the administrator, was not within the control of the claimant and was the direct cause of the claimant's failure to attend the scheduled interview.

Proposed law provides that an employer may submit a completed interview verification form, which shall constitute sufficient proof of the claimant attending an interview.

Proposed law provides that the Louisiana Workforce Commission (LWC) shall prescribe the interview verification form. Proposed law further provides that the form shall set forth the following:

- (1) The claimant's first and last name.
- (2) The employer's or company's name, physical address, and telephone number.
- (3) The interviewer's name and telephone number, if different from the employer's or company's.
- (4) The position for which the claimant is being interviewed.
- (5) The interviewer's signature.

Proposed law provides that LWC shall promulgate all rules as are necessary to facilitate the implementation of the use of the form, including but not limited to all of the following:

- (1) The creation of the interview verification form.
- (2) The manner and method in which the LWC will provide the interview verification form to employers.
- (3) The manner and method by which employers can submit the completed interview verification form to the LWC.
