AN ACT

To amend and reenact R.S. 22:91 and 119, relative to annual meetings of domestic insurance companies; to provide for annual meetings by remote means; to provide for minimum requirements for policyholder voting rights; to provide for reasonable classification of policyholders; to provide for additional votes based on a reasonable classification of policyholders; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 22:91 and 119 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§91. Stockholders' meetings

Domestic stock insurers shall hold at least one stockholders' meeting annually at a time and place, including by remote means, specified in the articles of incorporation or ~~by-laws~~ bylaws of the insurer. Each stockholder shall be entitled to vote each share of stock which he holds in his own name at any and all stockholders' meetings. The right to vote any share of stock may be conferred upon another stockholder by a written proxy. Any proxy may be revoked at any time by the owner of the shares upon written notice to the secretary of the insurer or the presiding officer at any meeting.

§119. Policyholders' meetings; voting rights; proxies

A. Domestic mutual insurers shall hold at least one policyholders' meeting annually at a time and place, including by remote means, specified in the charter or bylaws of the insurer. ~~Each policyholder shall be entitled to one vote on matters coming before corporate meetings of the policyholders, subject to such reasonable~~

1           ~~minimum requirements as to duration of his policy and amount of insurance held as~~
2           ~~may be made in the insurer's charter or by-laws.~~

3           B. Each policyholder shall be entitled to vote on matters coming before
4           corporate meetings of the policyholders, unless the insurer's charter or bylaws
5           provides that the right of a policyholder to vote is subject to reasonable minimum
6           requirements as to duration of the policy or the insurance held, amount of premiums
7           paid, amount of insurance held, or any combination thereof.

8           C. If a policyholder is entitled to vote on matters coming before corporate 9           meetings of the policyholders pursuant to Subsection B of this Section, the 10           policyholder shall be entitled to one vote, unless the insurer's charter or bylaws
11           provides otherwise, based on a classification of policyholders as to duration of the 12           policy or insurance held, the amount of premiums paid, amount of insurance held,
13           or any combination thereof.

14           D. The right to vote by any policyholder may be conferred upon any other 15           policyholder by a written proxy. Any proxy may be revoked at any time by the 16           policyholder, upon written notice to the secretary of the insurer or the presiding
17           officer at any meeting.
