Abstract: Prohibits employment discrimination based on criminal history records.

Proposed law provides that unless otherwise provided by law, when making a hiring decision, an employer shall not request or consider an arrest record or charge that did not result in a conviction, if such information is received in the course of a background check.

Proposed law provides that when considering other types of criminal history records, an employer shall make an individual assessment of whether an applicant's criminal history record has a direct and adverse relationship with the specific duties of the job that may justify denying the applicant the position.

- (1) The nature and gravity of the offense or conduct.
- (2) The time that has elapsed since the offense, conduct, or conviction.
