EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There will be an indeterminable increase in costs and workloads for schools to hold informational meetings with parents regarding graduation requirements and curriculum choices, and for counselors to meet with parents or guardians regarding a revision of a student's individual graduation plan for a career major (Jumpstart Pathway). The proposed law will not result in additional state costs, as the Department of Education (LDE) has adequate capacity to fulfill the requirement that it develop certain materials for use in the annual informational meetings outlined in the proposed law.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
