Abstract: Requires a candidate to provide an email address when qualifying for office

Present law requires that a candidate provide the following in his notice of candidacy: his name, the office he seeks, the address of his domicile, his telephone number, his electronic mail address if available, and the parish, ward, and precinct where he is registered to vote.

Proposed law retains present law but makes it mandatory to provide a valid email address when qualifying.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 18:463(A)(1)(a))
