SB 259 Original

DIGEST
2022 Regular Session

Hewitt

Proposed law provides for the "Public Benefit Integrity Law". Requires the Dept. of Children and Family Services, Dept. of Education, La. Dept. of Health, and La. Workforce Commission to report to the legislature annually regarding the agency's policies and processes for identifying and eliminating fraud, waste, and abuse in certain government-funded programs and the results of the application of those policies and processes.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
