SB 263 Original

DIGEST 2022 Regular Session

Morris

Present constitution provides for the attorney general to institute criminal prosecution at the request of the district attorney or for cause, when authorized by the court of original jurisdiction and subject to judicial review.

Proposed constitutional amendment eliminates the requirement that the court of original jurisdiction authorize the attorney general to institute criminal prosecution and provides that the legislature may define "cause" for the attorney general to institute a prosecution.

Proposed constitutional amendment otherwise retains present constitution.

Specifies submission of the amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on November 8, 2022.
