HB 704 Engrossed

2022 Regular Session

Newell

Abstract: Reallocates the monies received from the breast cancer awareness special prestige license plate to the Louisiana Breast and Cervical Health Program.

Present law provides for the breast cancer awareness special prestige license plate.

Present law specifies the license plate color and design to be selected by the La. Susan G. Komen Affiliates in compliance with present law.

Proposed law retains present law and changes the name to Susan G. Komen Louisiana.

Present law provides the monies received from the royalty fees will be forwarded to the La. Susan G. Komen Affiliates for use of the group's logo. Further provides the royalty fees are to be divided equally among the Susan G. Komen Affiliate groups in La. and used to support the programs established by the Susan G. Komen Affiliates.

Proposed law retains present law and reallocates monies received from the royalty fees to the La. Breast and Cervical Health Program solely for the support of programs established and administered by the La. Breast and Cervical Health Program.

Present law requires the secretary establish the breast cancer awareness speciality license plate upon the signing of a contract authorizing the use of the logo of the La. Susan G. Komen Affiliates. Requires the contract include La. Susan G. Komen's agreement to use the royalty fees as the law prescribes.

Proposed law removes present law.
