DIGEST

SB 466 Original

2022 Regular Session

Smith

Present law authorizes each assessor's office to increase the assessor's annual compensation by up to four percent each calendar year for four calendar years, which began in calendar year 2013 and ended in calendar year 2016.

Proposed law retains present law authorization and changes the annual compensation of assessors from up to four percent to up to five percent each calendar year for four calendar years, which begins in 2022 and ends in 2025.

Effective July 1, 2022.
