CODING: Words in struck through type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

1	(12) Interpreting insurance policy provisions or advising an insured
2	regarding coverage or duties under the insured's property insurance policy. A
3	contractor shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this Paragraph if a
4	person working on behalf of the contractor including but not limited to a
5	compensated employee or a nonemployee who is compensated by the contractor
6	violates the provisions of this Paragraph.
7	(13) Adjusting a property insurance claim on behalf of an insured. A
8	contractor shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this Paragraph if a
9	person working on behalf of the contractor including but not limited to a
10	compensated employee or a nonemployee who is compensated by the contractor
11	violates the provisions of this Paragraph.
12	(14) Providing an insured with an agreement authorizing repairs without
13	providing a good faith estimate of the itemized and detailed costs of services and
14	materials for repairs undertaken pursuant to a property damage claim. A contractor
15	shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this Paragraph if a person
16	working on behalf of the contractor including but not limited to a compensated
17	employee or a nonemployee who is compensated by the contractor violates the
18	provisions of this Paragraph. A contractor does not violate this Paragraph if, as a
19	result of the insurer adjusting a claim, the actual cost of repairs differs from the
20	initial estimate.
21	В.

23	(3) In addition to administrative sanctions as provided in this Part, violation
24	of Paragraph (A)(12) or (A)(13) of this Section shall constitute an unfair trade
25	practice pursuant to R.S. 22:1964, and the penalties contained in R.S. 22:1969 may
26	be enforced against the violator by the commissioner of insurance.
27	Section 3. R.S. 51:451(A) is hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 51:452 is
28	enacted to read as follows:

1	§451. Payments and rebates charged against insurance deductibles; sellers of goods
2	or services prohibited
3	A. No person selling or engaged in the sale of goods or services shall:
4	(1) Advertise or promise to provide goods or services. Provide goods or
5	services or advertise or promise to provide goods or services to an insured in a
6	transaction in which the goods or services will be paid for by the insured from the
7	proceeds of a property insurance claim and the person selling the goods or services,
8	without the insurer's consent, will do any of the following:
9	(a) Pay, waive, absorb, or otherwise decline to charge or collect the amount
10	of the insured's deductible.
11	(b) Provide a rebate or credit in connection with the sale of the goods or
12	services that will offset all or part of the amount paid by the insured as a deductible.
13	(c) In any manner, assist the insured in avoiding monetary payment of the
14	insured's deductible.
15	(2) Offer to pay, pay, or rebate all or part of any insurance deductible, under
16	a property or casualty insurance policy, to a consumer as part of any arrangement for
17	goods and services paid for by the consumer from proceeds of a property or casualty
18	insurance policy.
19	(3) Charge an amount, for such goods or services, that exceeds the usual and
20	customary charge by an amount equal to or greater than all or part of the applicable
21	insurance deductible paid.
22	* * *
23	§452. Contract paid with insurance policy proceeds; notice required
24	A contract to provide goods or services that is reasonably expected to be paid
25	wholly or partly with the proceeds from a claim under a property insurance policy
26	and has a contract price of one thousand dollars or more shall contain the following
27	notice in at least twelve-point boldfaced type: "Louisiana law requires a person
28	insured under a property insurance policy to pay any deductible applicable to a claim
29	made under the policy. It is a violation of Louisiana law for a seller of goods or

1 services who reasonably expects to be paid wholly or partly from the proceeds of a

2 property insurance claim to knowingly allow the insured person to fail to pay, or

3 assist in the insured person's failure to pay the applicable insurance deductible."

Abstract: Provides for property insurance policies.

Present law provides certain conduct that is considered to be an unfair method or competition and unfair or deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that violation of proposed law (R.S. 37:2175.3(A)(12) and (13)) shall be considered to be an unfair method or competition and unfair or deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance.

Present law prohibits persons performing home improvement contracting from engaging in certain acts.

Proposed law retains present law and prohibits persons performing home improvement contracting from engaging in the following acts:

- (1) Interpreting insurance policy provisions or advising an insured regarding coverage or duties under the insured's property insurance policy.
- (2) Adjusting a property insurance claim on behalf of an insured.
- (3) Providing an insured with an agreement authorizing repairs without providing a good faith estimate of the itemized and detailed cost of services and materials for repairs undertaken pursuant to a property damage claim.

Proposed law provides that in addition to administrative sanctions, violation of proposed law (R.S. 37:2175.3(A)(12) and (13)) shall constitute an unfair trade practice, and the penalties contained in present law (R.S. 22:1969) may be enforced by the commissioner of insurance.

Present law provides that no person selling or engaging in the sale of goods or services shall advertise or promise to provide goods or services or offer to pay, pay, or rebate any part of an insurance deductible as part of an arrangement for goods and services paid for with proceeds from an insurance policy.

Proposed law repeals present law and provides that no person selling or engaging in the sale of goods or services shall provide a good or service or advertise or promise to provide goods or services to an insured in a transaction in which the good or service will be paid for with proceeds of a property insurance claim and the person selling the good or service, without the insurer's consent, will do any of the following:

(1) Pay, waive, absorb, or otherwise decline to charge or collect the amount of the insured's deductible.

- (2) Provide a rebate or credit in connection with the sale of a good or service that will offset all or part of the amount paid by the insured as a deductible.
- (3) In any manner, assist the insured in avoiding monetary payment of the required insurance deductible.

Proposed law provides language for a notice that shall be included in contracts to provide a good or service that is reasonably expected to be paid with proceeds from a claim under an insurance policy.

(Amends R.S. 51:451(A); Adds R.S. 22:1964(A)(31), R.S. 37:2175.3(A)(12)-(14) and (B)(3), and R.S. 51:452)

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

- The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Insurance to the original bill:
- 1. Remove provisions of proposed law regarding the adjustment and settlement of first-party loss based on repair or replacement costs.
- 2. Provide that a violation of proposed law (R.S. 37:2175.3(A)(12) and (13)) shall be considered an unfair trade practice and provides the penalties for violation of proposed law.
- 3. Remove an exception from proposed law (R.S. 37:2175.3(A)(13)) for contractors who have a public adjuster license.
- 4. Make technical changes.
