

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 318 (SB 486)

2022 Regular Session

Morris

Existing law provides for the electronic transmittal of pleadings, documents, and exhibits in accordance with a system established by a clerk of court or by Louisiana Clerks Remote Access Authority. Further provides that the clerk of court shall adopt and implement procedures for the electronic filing and storage of any pleading, document, or exhibit, and that official record shall be the electronic record. Further provides that a pleading or document filed electronically is deemed filed on the date and time stated on the confirmation of electronic filing sent from the system, if the clerk of court accepts the electronic filing.

New law retains existing law.

Prior law provided that public access to electronically filed pleadings and documents shall be in accordance with the rules governing access to written filings.

New law provides that public access to electronically filed pleadings and documents shall be in accordance with the rules governing access to paper filings.

New law provides that the clerk of court may convert into an electronic record any pleading, document, or exhibit as set forth in prior law and authorizes the clerk of court to preserve the originals of conveyances.

Effective August 1, 2022.
