HB 347 Original

2023 Regular Session

Harris

Abstract: Changes the allocation of court costs and civil filing fees in Alexandria City Court.

Present law provides that one-half of the civil filing fees assessed and collected by the City Court of Alexandria shall be deposited in the general fund of the city of Alexandria.

Proposed law changes the use of the civil filing fees assessed and collected by the City Court of Alexandria and provides that such costs shall be used for the operational expenses of the court.

Present law provides that additional costs in all criminal matters, including traffic violations, assessed and collected by the City Court of Alexandria shall be used for the operational expenses of the court.

Proposed law changes the use of the additional costs in criminal matters, including traffic violations, and provides that such costs shall be deposited in the general fund of the city of Alexandria.

Effective Jan. 1, 2024.
