EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Proposed law will increase costs to the Board of Ethics by approximately $1,250 per year. The board will need confirmation that electronic notices sent by the board are actually received. To this end, the board reports that it will require additional software which provides for trackable text messages and emails at an estimated cost of $1,250 per year for software licenses.

The board reports that it will utilize existing staff to send the required electronic communications.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
