HB 184 Reengrossed

2023 Regular Session

Frieman

Abstract: Permits the intervention of a family member or other interested party in a proceeding triggered by the removal of a child from his home including a child in need of care adjudication.

Present law allows a suitable family member or other interested party to obtain an ex parte court order to participate in a continued custody hearing.

Proposed law retains present law and permits a suitable family member or other suitable individual to intervene in a continued custody hearing.

Proposed law allows a family member or interested person to intervene in a child in need of care adjudication in a continued custody hearing.

Proposed law defines "interested person".

(Amends Ch.C. Art. 622(A); Adds Ch.C. Art. 650)

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Civil Law and Procedure to the original bill:

1. Remove the proposed law authority of a party in a child in need of care proceeding to move that the court disapprove a DCFS placement.

The House Floor Amendments to the engrossed bill:

1. Remove that an organization may intervene to facilitate the placement of the child and add that a family member or interested person may intervene.
2. Define "interested person".
