

---

DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

---

HB 347 Engrossed

2023 Regular Session

Harris

Abstract: Changes the allocation of court costs and civil filing fees in Alexandria City Court.

Present law provides that one-half of the civil filing fees assessed and collected by the City Court of Alexandria shall be deposited in the general fund of the city of Alexandria.

Proposed law changes the use of the civil filing fees assessed and collected by the city court of Alexandria and provides that such costs shall be used for the operational expenses of the court.

Present law provides that additional costs in all criminal matters, including traffic violations, assessed and collected by the city court of Alexandria shall be used for the operational expenses of the court.

Proposed law changes the use of the additional costs in criminal matters, including traffic violations, and provides that such costs shall be deposited in the general fund of the city of Alexandria.

The proposed law re-allocation of court costs becomes effective on Jan. 1, 2024, and remains effective until Jan. 1, 2026, at which time the allocation of court costs revert back to present law.

(Amends R.S. 13:1875(12)(c) and 1899(B))

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Judiciary to the original bill:

1. Sunset the changes to present law on Jan. 1, 2026, to revert back to present law.