Provides relative to information provided when prosecuting offenses

Proposed law requires prosecuting agencies when instituting the prosecution of an offense involving a violation of any state law or local ordinance in any judicial district or city court to include within the indictment, affidavit, or information, the date of the offense, arrest date or summons date (if issued in lieu of an arrest), the state identification number of the defendant (if assigned to the defendant for a current or prior offense), and defendant demographic data (including sex, race, and date of birth). Proposed law provides that this information may be provided in a separate document submitted with the bill of information, bill of indictment or summons to the clerk of court. Proposed law requires the booking agency to provide this information to the district attorney or city prosecutor. Proposed law also requires the clerk of court to report this information along with disposition and disposition date to the Louisiana Supreme Court (LASC). Proposed law authorizes the LASC to report this information, along with disposition and disposition date, to the Louisiana Bureau of Criminal Identification and Information.
