

which bids can be entered. Proposed law also provides that the sheriff is not required to serve further notice of rescheduled online auction dates if the sheriff has not returned the writ.

Present law (R.S. 13:4341) provides with respect to the time and place of judicial sales and provides for the adjournment of sales to the following legal day.

Proposed law requires online auctions to be conducted on one of the days specified by present law but otherwise exempts online auctions from the requirements set forth by present law.

Proposed law (R.S. 13:4358) provides with respect to the use and compensation of online auction companies, including the assessment and maximum amount of fixed fees and buyer's premiums. Proposed law prohibits the sheriff from delegating certain duties and prohibits online auction companies from collecting additional fees or reimbursements or agreeing to share any monies received with the sheriff. Proposed law further provides for requirements concerning data security and liability insurance in contracts with online auction companies and, if the auction company will receive funds from bidders, requires the auction company to furnish a fidelity bond or other commercial crime insurance policy and hold the funds in a separate escrow or trust account.

Present law (R.S. 13:4360) provides with respect to the reoffering or readvertising of property for which full payment of the adjudication price has not been made.

Proposed law provides that for sales conducted through an online auction, payment is due by 4:30 p.m. on the first day following the sale that is not a legal holiday; otherwise, the property may be adjudicated to the second highest bidder or readvertised.

Proposed law (R.S. 13:4369) prohibits the institution of actions to set aside judicial sales conducted through online auctions for noncompliance with procedural requirements if the sheriff either has filed the proces verbal or has filed the sale for recordation in the conveyance records, for immovables, or has delivered an act of sale, for movables.

Present law (R.S. 13:5530(A)(7)(a)) sets forth the sheriffs' commissions on sales of property and defines "price of adjudication".

Effective August 1, 2023.
