

2023 Regular Session

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 126

BY REPRESENTATIVE CORMIER

A RESOLUTION

To recognize Tuesday, May 16, 2023, as Plaquemines Parish Day at the state capitol.

WHEREAS, Plaquemines Parish is home to more than twenty-three thousand residents, and is the site of many historic events; and

WHEREAS, Plaquemines Parish serves an important role in the oil and trade industries; and

WHEREAS, Plaquemines Parish is the parish with the most combined land and water area in Louisiana, and is located along the last seventy miles of the Mississippi River; and

WHEREAS, the parish became known as Plaquemines after the French name for their military post, "piakimin", which means persimmon, a name given because of the numerous persimmon trees near the post; and

WHEREAS, Plaquemines Parish was the first place in the United States where shippers used a container for cargo in foreign trade; and

WHEREAS, Fort Jackson is a major historical site in the parish, dating back to 1822, and was built pursuant to a recommendation from General Andrew Jackson; the fort was later used during the Civil War and as a training base for troops during World War I; and

WHEREAS, Woodland Plantation, an antebellum mansion in Plaquemines Parish, serves as a bed and breakfast and is depicted on the label for Southern Comfort whiskey; and

WHEREAS, Plaquemines Parish has significant seafood and citrus industries and is the largest crude oil producing parish in Louisiana; and

WHEREAS, Plaquemines Parish is also home to Plaquemines Port, one of the largest ports in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Isabela Rivera reigns as the current Orange Queen with great distinction and dedication, along with her Orange King Jody Guilbeau, while Kadence Tassin reigns as the current Teen Orange Queen, and Bentley Versowsky holds the title of Orange Blossom; and

WHEREAS, pageant winners for the 2023 seafood court include Seafood Queen Catherine Blondiau, Teen Seafood Queen Amy Hochhalter, and Pearl Carley Morse.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby designate Tuesday, May 16, 2023, as Plaquemines Parish Day at the state capitol.
