Digest of the bill as proposed by the Conference Committee

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 412) provides for confidentiality of juvenile records and disclosure exceptions.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 412(G)) provides that the district attorney or court may, in accordance with present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.1 and 811.3), release to the victim of a delinquent act constituting a crime of violence as defined in present law (R.S. 14:2(B)), or to the victim's legal representative or designated family member the following:

- (1) The results of adjudication and disposition hearings.
- (2) Notice of the taking into custody, release pursuant to present law (Ch. 6 of Title VIII of this Code), release due to a rejection of charges by the district attorney, escape, or re-apprehension of the child accused of the crime of violence against the victim.
- (3) Advance notice of court proceedings relating to the delinquent act.
- (4) Certain information contained in the predisposition report to the court pursuant to present law (Ch.C. Art. 890(A)(2)).

Proposed law amends present law to make the release of this information from the district attorney or court to the victim, the victim's legal representative, or designated family member mandatory rather than permissive. Further provides that this disclosure shall occur at the request of the victim.

Proposed law further amends present law to provide for the mandatory release of the following information to the victim, the victim's legal representative, or designated family member:

- (1) The name of the judge presiding over the adjudication and disposition hearings.
- (2) The offense which forms the basis for adjudication.
- (3) The name of the accused.

Proposed law provides that in a juvenile delinquency case involving a crime of violence as defined in present law (R.S. 14:2(B)), the court shall release to the public the following:

- (1) The nonidentifying results of adjudication and disposition hearings.
- (2) The name of the judge presiding over the adjudication and disposition hearings.
- (3) The offense which forms the basis for adjudication.

Proposed law further provides that this disclosure to the public shall occur upon written request provided to the court.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.1) provides for the rights and list of services available to the victim of an alleged delinquent act.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.1(A)(5)) provides that the court should provide, whenever possible, a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not require victims and their legal representatives to be in close proximity to accused children and their families and friends. Provides that the juvenile court shall provide a secure waiting area in cases involving violent crime.

Proposed law amends present law to add that the victim or the designated member of the victim's family in a case involving homicide or injury to a minor has the right to be present at all court proceedings and, whenever practical, shall be allowed to observe the proceedings by simultaneous transmission through audiovisual equipment, if such technology is available in the courtroom.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.1(A)(10)) provides for consultation between the prosecutor and the victim of a violent felony-grade offense as well as the designated member of the victim's family for the purpose of obtaining their view on both the disposition as well the use of available disposition alternatives for a case that involves homicide or injury to a minor.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.1(F)) provides that any information about the status of the case in juvenile court which is received by the victim or his legal representative shall remain subject to the confidentiality restrictions of present law (Ch.C. Art. 412) and shall not be further disclosed by him.

Proposed law changes present law to prohibit public officials, officers, and agencies from disclosing the name, address, or identity of a juvenile victim of crime who at the time of the commission of the offense is under 17 years of age. Further amends present law to raise the age threshold of the juvenile victim from 17 to 18 years of age.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.3(1)) defines the term "juvenile crime victim" as a person, under the age of 17, against whom an offense against the person that is a felony has been committed.

Proposed law amends the present law definition of "juvenile crime victim" to change the age threshold to under the age of 18 and to change the type of offense from an offense against the person that is a felony to a delinquent act.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.3(2)) defines the term "victim" as a person against whom an offense that is a felony-grade delinquent act has been committed.

Proposed law amends the present law definition of "victim" to remove the felony-grade designation.

Present law (Ch.C. Art. 811.3(3)) defines the term "victim's family" as a spouse, parent, child, stepchild, sibling, or legal representative of the victim, except when the person is in custody for an offense or is the defendant.
