

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 146 (SB 26)

2023 Regular Session

Price

Existing law required that the Ethics Adjudicatory Board to give public notice of its hearings that were conducted pursuant to existing law.

New law retains existing law and further requires the Ethics Adjudicatory Board to mail notice to the address at which the subject of the hearing was served with the charges pending before the board or an address provided by the respondent or the respondent's attorney of record after service was made.

Effective August 1, 2023.
