

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

HR 185

2023 Regular Session

Gregory Miller

New House Rule requires a chairman of any committee or task force, including any subcommittee thereof, to disclose to the Speaker, no later than 24 hours after calling a meeting during the interim, if the chairman knows or reasonably should know the meeting will cause a conflict that will cause or has caused the chairman to file a motion for a legislative continuance or extension of time pursuant to existing law (R.S. 13:4163) on a previously scheduled court matter or deadline. Further requires that the disclosure include the reasons why the meeting could not have been scheduled on a different date.

Effective June 7, 2023.

(Adds House Rule 4.10)