HB 8 Original

2024 Second Extraordinary Session

Schlegel

Abstract: Prohibits the distribution of fentanyl to minors.

Proposed law provides that any person who violates the provisions of present law (R.S. 40:967(A)) in a manner where there is reasonable appeal to a minor due to the shape, color, taste, or design of the fentanyl or the fentanyl's packaging shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than 25 years nor more than 99 years without benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence.

Proposed law defines the terms "fentanyl" and "reasonable appeal".
