Abstract: Requires an agency to propose the repeal of two agency rules at the same time it proposes to adopt a new rule.

Present law, the Administrative Procedure Act, establishes procedures for the adoption of rules by executive branch agencies.

Present law provides that prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall give notice of its intended action and specifies the content of the notice.

Proposed law further requires an agency proposing to adopt a new rule to, at the same time, identify and give notice of its intention to repeal two rules of the agency. Requires the agency to identify the two rules in its notice of intent for the proposed new rule.
