
DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

HB 219 Original

2024 Regular Session

Bayham

Abstract: Prohibits a term-limited state legislator from qualifying for reelection to the same office for a period of 10 years.

Present constitution provides that a member of the legislature shall be elected for a four-year term. Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution.

Present constitution provides that no person who has been elected to serve as a member of the Senate for more than two and one-half terms in three consecutive terms shall be elected to the Senate for the succeeding term.

Proposed constitutional amendment instead provides that a term-limited member of the Senate shall not qualify for election to the Senate for 10 years following the end of the third consecutive term, rather than for the succeeding term.

Present constitution provides that no person who has been elected to serve as a member of the House of Representatives for more than two and one-half terms in three consecutive terms shall be elected to the House of Representatives for the succeeding term.

Proposed constitutional amendment instead provides that a term-limited member of the House of Representatives shall not qualify for election to the House of Representatives for 10 years following the end of the third consecutive term, rather than for the succeeding term.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held Nov. 5, 2024.

(Amend Const. Art. III, §4(E))