HB 564 Original

2024 Regular Session

Galle

Abstract: Requires an official declaration of war or congressional authorization for the La. National Guard to be called into active combat duty in defense of the U.S.

Present law provides that the governor may order state militia into active duty service under various circumstances.

Proposed law retains present law but requires an official declaration of war or congressional authorization for the La. National Guard to be called into active combat duty in defense of the U.S.
