2024 Regular Session

Carpenter

Abstract: Relative to sick leave banks for school employees, allows direct employee-to-employee donations and requires the retention of a certain percentage of the leave balance in the bank from school year to school year.

Present law requires public school boards to provide a sick leave bank policy to allow for the donation of sick leave among employees (applicable to teachers, bus operators, and other employees).

Proposed law:

- (1) Authorizes an employee to donate a certain amount of his sick leave directly to another employee.
- (2) Requires that at least 90% percent of the bank's leave balance be retained from one school year to the next.

(Amends R.S. 17:500.2(F), 1202(F), and 1206.2(F))
