SB 398 Original	2024 Regular Session	Jenkins

Present law creates numerous tourist commissions around the state as political subdivisions. Authorizes each commission to levy and collect a hotel occupancy tax to be used for the operation of the commission and for attracting conventions and tourists.

Present law provides the Shreveport-Bossier Convention and Tourist Bureau with a maximum rate of four and one-half percent until 25 years after June 30, 1999.

Proposed law retains present law but extends the sunset of the maximum rate of four and one-half percent for an additional 25 years, from June 30, 1999 to June 30, 2049.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
