5 appraisal process; to authorize the commissioner of insurance to collect fees for

6 appraisers and umpires; to modify relative to appraisal clauses within residential

7 property and fire insurance policies; to provide for registration policies and

8 procedures for appraisers and umpires; to provide for penalties; to authorize the

9 commissioner of insurance to impose a penalty upon or sanction violators; to provide

10 for definitions; to provide for an appraisal process; to provide for a selection process

11 for appraisers or umpires; to provide for qualifications for appraisers and umpires;

12 to prohibit conflicts of interest; to provide for job descriptions, responsibilities, and

13 obligations; to prohibit certain communication; to provide for costs; to provide for 14 an effective date; and to provide for related matters.

15 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

16 Section 1. R.S. 22:821(B)(34)(introductory paragraph),1311(F)(2), Part XI of

17 Chapter 5 of Title 22 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 22:1807.1

18 through 1807.26, and 1892(G) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

1 §821. Fees

2 * * *

3 B. The commissioner shall collect the following fees in advance:

4 * * *

5 (34) For appraisers and umpires (one fee for either or both):

6 First time applicant. $55.00

7 Renewal fee (every twelve months)... $50.00

8 * * *

9 §1311. Fire insurance contract; standard provisions; variations

10 * * *

11 F. The form of the standard fire insurance policy of the state of Louisiana 12 (with permission to substitute for the word "company" a more accurate descriptive 13 term for the type of insurer) shall be as follows:

14 * * *

15 (2) SECOND PAGE OF STANDARD FIRE POLICY

16 Concealment, fraud-This entire policy shall be void if, whether before or after 17 a loss, the insured has willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or 18 circumstance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof, or the interest of the 19 insured therein, or in case of any fraud or false swearing by the insured relating 20 thereto.

21 Uninsurable and excepted property-This policy shall not cover accounts,
22 bills, currency, deeds, evidence of debt, money, or securities; nor, unless specifically 23 named hereon in writing, bullion, or manuscripts.

24 Perils not included-This company shall not be liable for loss by fire or other 25 perils insured against in this policy caused, directly or indirectly, by:

- 26 (a) enemy attack by armed forces, including action taken by military, naval,
27 or air forces in resisting an actual or an immediately impending enemy attack; (b)
28 invasion; (c) insurrection; (d) rebellion; (e) revolution; (f) civil war; (g) usurped 29 power; (h) order of any civil authority except acts of destruction at the time of and

1 for the purpose of preventing the spread of fire, provided that such fire did not
2 originate from any of the perils excluded by this policy; (i) neglect of the insured to 3 use all reasonable means to save and preserve the property at and after a loss, or 4 when the property is endangered by fire in neighboring premises; (j) nor shall this
5 Company be liable for loss by theft.

6 Other insurance-Other insurance may be prohibited or the amount of 7 insurance may be limited by endorsement attached hereto.

8 Conditions suspending or restricting insurance-Unless otherwise provided in 9 writing added hereto, this Company shall not be liable for loss occurring:

10 (a) While the hazard is increased by any means within the control or 11 knowledge of the insured; or

12 (b) While a described building, whether intended for occupancy by owner 13 or tenant, is vacant, or unoccupied beyond a period of sixty consecutive days; or

14 (c) As a result of explosion or riot, unless fire ensues, and in that event for 15 loss by fire only.

16 Other perils or subjects-Any other peril to be insured against or subject of 17 insurance to be covered in this policy shall be by endorsement in writing hereon or 18 added hereto.

19 Added provisions-The extent of the application of insurance under this policy
20 and of the contribution to be made by this Company in case of loss, and any other 21 provision or agreement not inconsistent with the provisions of this policy, may be 22 provided for in writing added hereto, but no provisions may be waived except such 23 as by the terms of this policy is subject to change.

24 Waiver provisions-No permission affecting this insurance shall exist, or 25 waiver of any provision be valid unless granted herein or expressed in writing added
26 hereto. No provision, stipulation, or forfeiture shall be held to be waived by any 27 requirement or proceeding on the part of this Company relating to appraisal or to any 28 examination provided for herein.

1 Cancellation of policy-This policy shall be canceled at any time at the request
2 of the insured, in which case this Company shall, upon demand and surrender of this 3 policy, refund the excess of paid premium above the customary short rates for the 4 expired time. This policy may be canceled at any time by this Company by giving
5 to the insured a thirty-day written notice of cancellation, or ten-day written notice
6 when cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, with or without tender of the 7 excess paid premium above the pro rata premium for the expired time which excess,
8 if not tendered, shall be refunded on demand. Notice of cancellation shall state that 9 said excess premium, if not tendered, will be refunded on demand. Upon the written 10 request of the named insured, the insurer shall provide to the insured in writing the 11 reasons for cancellation of the policy. There shall be no liability on the part of and 12 no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any insurer or its agents, 13 employees, or representatives for any action taken by them to provide the reasons for 14 cancellation as required by this Paragraph.

15 Mortgagee interest and obligations-If loss hereunder is made payable in 16 whole or in part, to a designated mortgagee not named herein as the insured, such 17 interest in this policy may be canceled by delivering or mailing to such mortgagee
18 a thirty-day written notice of cancellation, or a ten-day written notice of cancellation
19 if cancellation is for nonpayment of premium.

20 If the insured fails to render proof of loss such mortgagee, upon notice, shall 21 render proof of loss in form herein specified within sixty (60) days thereafter and 22 shall be subject to the provisions hereof relating to appraisal and time of payment
23 and of bringing suit. If this Company shall claim that no liability existed as to the 24 mortgagor or owner, it shall, to the extent of payment of loss to the mortgagee, be 25 subrogated to all the mortgagee's rights of recovery, but without impairing 26 mortgagee's rights to sue; or it may pay off the mortgage debt and require an 27 assignment thereof and of the mortgage. Other provisions relating to the interests 28 and obligations of such mortgagee may be added hereto by agreement in writing.

1 Pro rata liability-This Company shall not be liable for a greater proportion
2 of any loss than the amount hereby insured shall bear to the whole insurance
3 covering the property against the peril involved, whether collectible or not.

4 Requirements in case loss occurs-The insured shall give immediate written
5 notice to this Company of any loss, protect the property from further damage,
6 forthwith separate the damaged and undamaged personal property, put it in the best 7 possible order, furnish a complete inventory of the destroyed, damaged, and 8 undamaged property, showing in detail quantities, costs, actual cash value, and 9 amount of loss claimed; and within sixty days after loss, unless such time is extended
10 in writing by this Company, the insured shall render to this Company a proof of loss,
11 signed and sworn to by the insured, stating the knowledge and belief of the insured
12 as to the following: the time and origin of the loss, the interest of the insured and of 13 all others in the property, the actual cash value of each item thereof and the amount 14 of loss thereto, all encumbrances thereon, all other contracts of insurance, whether 15 valid or not, covering any of said property, any changes in the title, use, occupation,
16 location, possession, or exposures of said property since the issuing of this policy,
17 by whom and for what purpose any building herein described and the several parts
18 thereof were occupied at the time of loss and whether or not it then stood on leased
19 ground, and shall furnish a copy of all the descriptions and schedules in all policies
20 and, if required, verified plans and specifications of any building, fixtures, or 21 machinery destroyed or damaged. The insured, as often as may be reasonably 22 required shall exhibit to any person designated by this Company all that remains of 23 any property herein described, and submit to examinations under oath by any person
24 named by this Company, and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be reasonably 25 required, shall produce for examination all books of account, bills, invoices and other 26 vouchers, or certified copies thereof if originals be lost, at such reasonable time and 27 place as may be designated by this Company or its representatives, and shall permit
28 extracts and copies thereof to be made.

1 Appraisal-In case the insured and this Company shall fail to agree as to the 2 actual cash value or the amount of loss, then, on the written demand of either, each 3 shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser and notify the other of the 4 appraiser selected within twenty days of such demand. The appraisers shall first 5 select a competent and disinterested umpire; and failing for fifteen days to agree
6 upon such umpire, then on request of the insured or this Company such umpire shall 7 be selected by a judge of a court of record in the state in which the property covered
8 is located, in the manner provided by law. The appraisers shall then appraise the 9 loss, stating separately actual cash value and loss to each item, and failing to agree,
10 shall submit their differences, only, to the umpire. An award in writing, so itemized,
11 of any two when filed with this Company shall determine the amount of actual cash
12 value and loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting him and the 13 expenses of appraisal and umpire shall be paid by the parties equally.

14 Company's options-It shall be optional with this Company to take all, or any 15 part, of the property at the agreed or appraised value, and also to repair, rebuild, or 16 replace the property destroyed or damaged with other of like kind and quality within 17 a reasonable time, on giving notice of its intention to do so within thirty days after 18 the receipt of the proof of loss herein required.

19 Abandonment-There can be no abandonment to this Company of any 20 property.

21 When loss payable-The amount of loss for which this Company may be liable
22 shall be payable thirty days after proof of loss, as herein provided, is received by this 23 Company and ascertainment of the loss is made either by agreement between the 24 insured and this Company expressed in writing or by filing with this Company of an 25 award as herein provided.

26 Suit-No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any first-party claim
27 shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless all the requirements of this 28 policy shall have been complied with, and unless commenced within twenty-four 29 months next after the inception of the loss.

1 ~~may~~ issue an order prohibiting a person from acting as an appraiser or umpire, and 2 ~~may~~ rescind the registration of any person, ~~if the person has violated~~ who violates
3 this Part or the commissioner's regulations or orders.

4 B. A person aggrieved by a decision, act, or order of the commissioner
5 pursuant to the provisions of this Part may demand a hearing in accordance with 6 Chapter 12 of this Title, R.S. 22:2191 et seq.

7 SUBPART B. APPRAISAL PROCESS

8 §1807.11. Definitions

9 The following definitions apply to this Subpart:

10 (1) "Appraiser" means a person who is qualified to be an appraiser pursuant 11 to the provisions of R.S. 22:1807.14 and selected by an insurer or a claimant to 12 participate in the appraisal process.

13 (2) "Claimant" means a person who makes a first-party claim under a policy
14 of property insurance.

15 (3) "Good cause" means any of the following:

16 (a) Any conflict of interest provided for in R.S. 22:1807.14 or 1807.17.

17 (b) An umpire who lacks independence or is unable to discharge the duties
18 of an umpire competently or promptly.

19 (c) Any other reasons that would reasonably be expected to impair an 20 appraisal.

21 (4) "Immediate family" as the term relates to an appraiser or umpire means 22 his spouse, the parents of his spouse, his parents, his children and their spouses, and 23 his siblings and their spouses.

24 (5) "Party" means an insurer or a claimant. "Party" includes employees,
25 contractors, and other representatives of a party.

26 (6) "Umpire" means a person who is qualified to be an appraisal umpire
27 pursuant to the provisions of R.S. 22:1807.17 and selected by the appraisers or a 28 judge to participate in the appraisal process.

1 (7) "Umpire selection panel" means a list of potential umpires prepared by
2 the commissioner for selection of an umpire pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.19.

3 §1807.12. Applicability

4 A. The provisions of this Subpart provide for the appraisal process if all of 5 the following apply:

6 (1) An insurer has accepted coverage for a claim, in full or in part.

7 (2) The claimant and insurer have a dispute as to the amount of loss the 8 insurer will pay for the accepted portion of the claim under the policy.

9 (3) The policy is issued, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state.

10 (4) The property that is the subject of the claim is located in this state or the 11 dispute is subject to jurisdiction in this state.

12 (5) The claimant or insurer demands an appraisal pursuant to the policy.

13 B. Nothing in this Part shall be construed to authorize the commissioner to 14 regulate the practice of law.

15 §1807.13. Appraisal process

16 A. Upon a demand for appraisal, the insurer and the claimant shall each
17 select an appraiser who is independent and qualified pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.14.

18 B.(1) If the appraisers are unable to agree on the amount of loss, they shall 19 select an umpire who is independent and qualified pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.17.

20 (2) If the appraisers are unable to agree on an umpire, either appraiser may 21 submit a request to the judge, if a lawsuit has been filed, to select an umpire, which 22 shall include all of the following:

23 (a) The type of policy.

24 (b) A description of the claim and, if known, the claimed value of the loss.

25 (c) The insurer's itemized estimate and a statement of payments made to 26 date.

27 (d) Any other information that the judge requests.

28 C. The selected umpire shall participate in the resolution of the dispute if the 29 appraisers fail to reach agreement and instruct the umpire in writing to begin work.

1 D. An itemized decision agreed to by both appraisers or by one appraiser and 2 the umpire shall set the amount of loss the insurer will pay for the claim subject to
3 applicable policy terms, limits, deductibles, and conditions. The umpire may enter
4 into an itemized decision with either or both appraisers on a compromise basis. The 5 umpire may issue an itemized decision if there is agreement on the amount of the 6 loss, even if there is disagreement as to some of the individual items.

7 §1807.14. Appraiser qualifications; conflicts of interest

8 A. To qualify as an appraiser, a person shall meet all of the following 9 criteria:

10 (1) Have at least three years of experience in the profession in which he is 11 licensed.

12 (2) Have experience or training in estimating property damage.

13 (3) Be any one of the following with an active license:

14 (a) A professional engineer licensed pursuant to R.S. 37:681 et seq. or the 15 laws of another state.

16 (b) An architect licensed pursuant to R.S. 37:141 et seq.

17 (c) An adjuster licensed pursuant to R.S. 22:1661 et seq.

18 (d) A public adjuster licensed pursuant to R.S. 22:1691 et seq.

19 (e) A general contractor licensed pursuant to R.S. 37:2150 et seq.

20 B. A potential conflict of interest exists if any of the following apply to an 21 appraiser:

22 (1) The appraiser is a party to a lawsuit against the insurer.

23 (2) The appraiser has any other direct or indirect interest, financial or 24 otherwise, of any nature that substantially conflicts with the appraiser's duties.

25 C. A disqualifying conflict of interest for an appraiser exists if any of the 26 following apply:

27 (1) The appraiser or a member of his immediate family is any of the 28 following:

29 (a) A party to the claim.

1 (b) A current employee or contractor of a party.

2 (c) A current employee of the adjuster or public adjuster, including business
3 entity licensees, who adjusted the loss.

4 (2) The appraiser is a party to a current lawsuit with the insurer that is a party
5 to the appraisal.

6 §1807.15. Appraiser registration; revocation

7 A. An appraiser shall meet the qualifications in R.S. 22:1807.14 and register
8 by filing with the commissioner all of the following information:

9 (1) Contact information.

10 (2) Training and experience in the profession in which he is licensed.

11 (3) Training and experience related to estimating property damage claims.

12 (4) Whether the professional experience and training are in residential or 13 commercial property.

14 (5) Any relevant licenses or certifications.

15 (6) A general description of the approximate number, types of policies, and 16 value and complexity of property damage claims on which the applicant worked over
17 the previous five years.

18 (7) The parishes in which the appraiser is willing to work.

19 (8) The types of policies and value and complexity of claims on which the 20 appraiser is willing to work.

21 (9) Any professional disciplinary actions or criminal convictions he has had.

22 (10) A current biography, resume, or curriculum vitae.

23 B. The commissioner shall publish a list of appraisers on the department's 24 website. Published information shall include an appraiser's name, contact 25 information, preferred types of claims, and preferred geographic areas.

26 C. The commissioner may revoke the registration of an appraiser for any of 27 the following reasons:

28 (1) Dishonest, incompetent, fraudulent, or unethical behavior.

1 (2) A disciplinary action by any other agency or disciplinary authority
2 against the appraiser, regardless of whether the agency or disciplinary authority's
3 regulation relates to the appraisal.

4 (3) Conviction of, or accepting deferred adjudication for, a crime pursuant
5 to state or federal law.

6 (4) Failure to comply with any requirement of this Subpart.

7 (5) Other factors relevant to the appraiser's qualifications, conflicts of 8 interest, or performance.

9 §1807.16. Appraiser obligations

10 A. An appraiser shall disclose to the parties any potential conflicts of 11 interest, provided for in R.S. 22:1807.14, no later than five days after hiring by a 12 party and before beginning work on an appraisal.

13 B. After accepting responsibility for an appraisal, the appraiser shall not 14 withdraw or abandon the appraisal unless compelled to do so by unforeseen
15 circumstances that would render it impossible or impracticable to continue.

16 C. An appraiser shall postpone an appraisal for a reasonable amount of time
17 if a party shows reasonable cause for a postponement.

18 D. An appraiser has a duty to do all of the following:

19 (1) Consider all information provided by the parties and any other reasonably
20 available evidence material to the claim.

21 (2) Carefully decide all issues submitted for determination regarding the 22 amount of loss.

23 (3) Give the parties and the other appraiser an itemized written appraisal.

24 (4) Conduct the appraisal process to advance the fair and efficient resolution 25 of the matters submitted for decision.

26 E. An appraiser shall not do any of the following:

27 (1) Permit outside pressure to affect an appraisal.

28 (2) Delegate the duty to decide to any other person.

1 (3) Communicate with an umpire without including the other party or the
2 other party's appraiser, except as permitted in R.S. 22:1807.22.

3 (4) Charge the parties on a contingent fee basis, percentage of the decision,
4 barter arrangement, gift, favor, or in-kind exchange.

5 (5) Charge a fee for services if the appraiser withdraws or abandons the 6 appraisal.

7 §1807.17. Umpire qualifications; conflicts of interest

8 A. To qualify as an umpire, a person shall meet all of the following
9 requirements:

10 (1) Be either of the following:

11 (a) An appraiser qualified pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.14.

12 (b) An attorney licensed in this state with experience in first-party property
13 damage litigation.

14 (2) Have no disqualifying conflicts of interest listed in Subsection B of this 15 Section, unless, after full disclosure, the parties agree in writing to waive an 16 otherwise disqualifying conflict of interest.

17 B. A disqualifying conflict of interest for an umpire exists if any of the 18 following apply:

19 (1) The umpire or a member of his immediate family is any of the following:

20 (a) A party to the claim.

21 (b) A current employee or contractor of a party.

22 (c) A current employee of the adjuster or public adjuster, including business
23 entity licensees, who adjusted the loss.

24 (2) The umpire currently has an open claim or acts as a representative or 25 public adjuster on an open claim with the insurer that is a party to the appraisal.

26 (3) The umpire is a party or a member or employee of a law firm that 27 represents a party to a current lawsuit with the insurer that is a party to the appraisal.

28 (4) The umpire has any other direct or indirect interest, financial or 29 otherwise, of any nature that substantially conflicts with the umpire's duties.

1 §1807.18. Umpire registration; revocation

2 A. An umpire shall meet the qualifications in R.S. 22:1807.17 and register
3 by filing with the commissioner all of the following information:

4 (1) Contact information.

5 (2) Training and experience in the profession in which he is licensed.

6 (3) Training and experience related to estimating property damage claims.

7 (4) Whether the professional experience and training are in residential or
8 commercial property.

9 (5) Any relevant licenses or certifications.

10 (6) A general description of the approximate number, type of policies, and
11 value and complexity of property damage claims on which the applicant worked over
12 the previous five years.

13 (7) The parishes in which the umpire is willing to work.

14 (8) The types of policies and value and complexity of claims on which the 15 umpire is willing to work.

16 (9) Any professional disciplinary actions or criminal convictions he has had.

17 (10) A current biography, resume, or curriculum vitae.

18 B. The commissioner shall publish a list of umpires on the department's 19 website. Published information shall include an umpire's name, contact information, 20 preferred types of claims, and preferred geographic areas.

21 C. The commissioner may revoke the registration of an umpire for any of the 22 following reasons:

23 (1) Dishonest, incompetent, fraudulent, or unethical behavior.

24 (2) A disciplinary action by any other agency or disciplinary authority
25 against the umpire, regardless of whether the agency or disciplinary authority's
26 regulation relates to the appraisal.

27 (3) Conviction of, or accepting deferred adjudication for, a crime pursuant
28 to state or federal law.

29 (4) Failure to comply with any requirement of this Subpart.

1 (5) Other factors relevant to the umpire's qualifications, conflicts of interest,
2 or performance.

3 §1807.19. Umpire selection by judge

4 A. The provisions of this Section apply if the appraisers are unable to agree
5 on an umpire and a party requests a judge to select an umpire.

6 B. A judge selecting an umpire shall do either of the following:

7 (1) Request the commissioner to submit an umpire selection panel pursuant
8 to this Section.

9 (2) Select an umpire qualified pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.17.

10 C. In creating an umpire selection panel, the commissioner may consider the 11 following:

12 (1) The umpire's preferred geographic locations and preferred types of 13 claims.

14 (2) The proximity of the claimant's property and the umpire.

15 (3) The umpire's areas of training and expertise.

16 (4) The extent of the umpire's experience with appraisal and property
17 damage claims.

18 (5) The subject of the dispute.

19 (6) The type of policy.

20 (7) The value and complexity of the claim.

21 (8) Any conflicts of interest.

22 (9) Other factors relevant to the dispute.

23 D.(1) Using a random selection method, the commissioner shall notify at 24 least five umpires of possible inclusion on an umpire selection panel.

25 (2) Each umpire notified shall respond to the commissioner no later than five
26 days after receiving the notice, stating whether the umpire will accept or reject
27 selection as umpire for an appraisal.

28 (3) Each umpire accepting selection shall respond by providing all of the 29 following information:

1 (a) A current resume, curriculum vitae, or brief biographical sketch of the 2 umpire.

3 (b) A statement as to whether the umpire is insured by the insurer.

4 (c) Any prior knowledge the umpire has regarding the dispute.

5 (d) Any disqualifying conflict of interest provided for in R.S. 22:1807.17.

6 E. The commissioner shall do both of the following:

7 (1) Create the umpire selection panel.

8 (2) Send the information provided pursuant to this Section and the umpire
9 selection panel list to the parties and appraisers.

10 F. If the appraisers select an umpire from the umpire selection panel, the 11 appraisers shall inform the commissioner no later than three days after the 12 agreement.

13 G. If the appraisers do not agree to an umpire from the umpire selection
14 panel, each appraiser may object pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.26, and the appraisers
15 may agree, in writing, to the commissioner selecting an umpire from the umpire
16 selection panel using a random selection method. If the appraisers do not both agree 17 in writing to that selection, then a judge shall make the appointment pursuant to 18 applicable law.

19 H. If the appraisers elect to use the random selection method, the 20 commissioner shall notify the umpire selected pursuant to Subsection G of this
21 Section and give the umpire the claim information provided for in R.S. 22:1807.13.

22 §1807.20. Umpire obligations

23 A.(1) The umpire shall disclose any disqualifying conflicts of interest
24 provided for in R.S. 22:1807.17 to both parties within five days after hiring by a
25 party and before beginning any work.

26 (2) The umpire shall recuse himself from an appraisal for which there exists 27 a disqualifying conflict of interest unless the parties agree in writing to waive any 28 conflict of interest.

29 B. The umpire shall not do either of the following:

1 (1) Begin work until the appraisers direct the umpire in writing to begin,
2 upon their failure to reach an agreement.

3 (2) Visit the claimant's property without consent from both appraisers.

4 C. The umpire shall do all of the following:

5 (1) Address only items about which the appraisers disagree.

6 (2) Review the differences and seek agreement with either or both of the 7 appraisers regarding the disputed items.

8 (3) Allow each appraiser a fair opportunity to present evidence and 9 arguments.

10 (4) Review all information submitted by the appraisers and parties, which 11 is related to the dispute, including the itemized appraisals or estimates, supporting 12 documents, photographs, and diagrams.

13 (5) Prepare an itemized written decision and promptly provide it to the 14 parties and the appraisers.

15 D. The umpire may do any of the following:

16 (1) Ask questions and request documents or other evidence, including expert 17 reports.

18 (2) Consider any conflicts of interest or objections to appraisers upon request
19 of a party.

20 (3) Accept either appraiser's scope, quantity, value, or cost regarding an item
21 in dispute or develop an independent decision on an item in dispute.

22 E. Upon accepting an appointment to be the umpire for an appraisal, the 23 umpire shall adhere to the following duties:

24 (1) The umpire shall decide all matters fairly, exercising independent
25 judgment and integrity.

26 (2) The umpire shall not do any of the following:

27 (a) Withdraw or abandon the appraisal, unless compelled by unforeseen
28 circumstances that would render it impossible or impracticable to continue.

1 (b) Be present for or participate in settlement discussions, unless requested
2 by both parties.

3 (c) Permit outside influence to affect the appraisal.

4 (d) Delegate the umpire's decision to any other person.

5 F.(1) The umpire shall disclose all fees. The umpire may specify different
6 charges for types or values of claims. The provisions of this Paragraph do not apply
7 to umpires selected pursuant to R.S. 22:1807.19.

8 (2) The umpire shall not charge the parties on a contingent fee basis,
9 percentage of the decision, barter arrangement, gift, favor, or in-kind exchange.

10 §1807.21. Additional obligations for commissioner-selected umpires

11 All of the following obligations apply to an umpire selected by the 12 commissioner:

13 (1) No later than seven days after receiving notice of selection for an 14 appraisal, the umpire shall send a written notice to the parties and the appraisers,
15 containing the following:

16 (a) The identity of the umpire.

17 (b) Whether the umpire is insured by the insurer.

18 (c) A statement informing each party of his respective right to object to the 19 umpire and the method through which the parties may object pursuant to R.S.
20 22:1807.26.

21 (2) Before the umpire begins work, the parties and the umpire shall sign an 22 appraisal contract that requires the parties and the umpire to comply with the 23 provisions of this Subpart and provides that each party shall pay the appraisal costs
24 provided for in R.S. 22:1807.23.

25 (3) The umpire shall notify the commissioner upon completion of the 26 appraisal process and upon reaching an appraisal decision.

27 (4) The umpire shall charge an hourly rate set by the commissioner and may 28 charge a minimum two-hour fee.

1 (5) The umpire may charge for reasonably incurred travel costs, including
2 mileage, meals, and lodging. If the umpire charges for reasonably incurred travel
3 costs, he shall provide an estimate of the travel costs as an addendum to the contract
4 provided for in Paragraph (2) of this Section.

5 §1807.22. Prohibited communications

6 A. All of the following provisions apply after an umpire's selection and 7 before the appraisal process ends:

8 (1) The umpire shall not communicate separately with either party or either
9 party's appraiser regarding the pending appraisal unless the umpire notifies the other
10 party and gives the other party the opportunity to participate.

11 (2) The parties and respective appraisers shall not communicate with the 12 umpire regarding the appraisal without including the other party or appraiser, except 13 that:

14 (a) An appraiser may identify the parties' counsel or experts.

15 (b) An appraiser may discuss logistical matters, such as setting the time and 16 place of meetings or making other arrangements for the conduct of the proceedings.
17 The appraiser initiating this contact with the umpire shall promptly inform the other
18 appraiser.

19 (c) If an appraiser fails to attend a meeting or conference call after receiving 20 notice, or if both parties agree in writing, the opposing appraiser may discuss the 21 claim with the umpire who is present.

22 B. After receiving notice of a possible inclusion on a umpire selection panel, 23 the umpire shall not at any time communicate information about the appraisal with 24 any individual besides the parties, the insurer, the appraisers, and the commissioner.
25 However, the umpire may communicate information about the appraisal with the 26 written consent of both parties.

27 §1807.23. Costs

28 A. Each party is responsible for and shall pay the following:

29 (1) His own appraiser fees and expenses.

1 (2) Half of the reasonable and necessary costs incurred for an umpire's fee
2 and expenses.

3 (3) Half of any reasonable and necessary costs incurred to conduct the 4 appraisal.

5 B. If the parties settle before the umpire begins work, the umpire shall not 6 charge a fee.

7 C. The parties shall not pay an appraiser or umpire on a contingent fee basis,
8 percentage of the decision, barter arrangement, gift, favor, or in-kind exchange.

9 D. The commissioner is not responsible for any appraisal fees, expenses, or 10 costs.

11 §1807.24. Extensions of deadlines

12 A. The commissioner may extend any deadline provided in this Subpart for 13 reasonable cause, except the deadline for the umpire to notify the parties that the 14 umpire is insured by the insurer.

15 B. To request the commissioner to extend a deadline, a party, appraiser, or 16 umpire shall, pursuant to the provisions of R.S. 22:1807.25, send the request in 17 writing to the commissioner explaining the reasonable cause for the extension.
18 Reasonable cause includes military deployment of the claimant.

19 C. The commissioner shall not approve deadline extensions that exceed an 20 aggregate of one hundred twenty days. This limit does not apply to extensions of the 21 deadline to file an objection because of an umpire being insured by the insurer.

22 §1807.25. Requests and submissions to the commissioner

23 A. A party, appraiser, or umpire submitting notices, requests, or other items
24 to the commissioner pursuant to this Subpart shall hand deliver, mail, or send in a
25 manner that is otherwise acceptable to the commissioner.

26 B. For the purposes of the deadlines imposed by this Subpart, the date
27 applicable to an item is the date the commissioner receives the item.

1 §1892. Payment and adjustment of claims, policies other than life and health and
2 accident; vehicle damage claims; extension of time to respond to claims
3 during emergency or disaster; penalties; arson-related claims suspension

5 G. Residential property insurance policies shall contain the following
6 provision, with permission to substitute the words "this company" with a more
7 accurate descriptive term for the insurer:

8 "Appraisal. If you and this Company fail to agree as to the amount of loss,
9 either party may demand that the amount of the loss be set by appraisal. If either
10 party makes a written demand for appraisal, each party shall select a competent 11 appraiser and notify the other party of their appraiser's identity within twenty days
12 of receipt of the written demand for appraisal. The appraisers shall select a
13 competent and impartial umpire. If after fifteen days the appraisers have not agreed
14 upon who will serve as umpire, the umpire shall be appointed by a judge of the court
15 of record in which the property is located. The appraisers shall appraise the loss
16 pursuant to law. If the appraisers submit written notice of an agreement as to the 17 amount of the loss to this Company, the amount agreed upon shall set the amount of 18 the loss. If the appraisers fail to agree within thirty days, the appraisers shall submit 19 their differences along with any supporting documentation to the umpire, who shall 20 appraise the loss. The appraisers may extend the time to sixty days for which they 21 shall agree upon the amount of loss or submit their differences and supporting 22 documents to the umpire, if the extension is agreed to by the appraisers from both 23 parties. A written agreement signed by the umpire and either party's appraiser shall 24 set the amount of the loss, pursuant to the appraisal process, but shall not preclude
25 either party from exercising its rights under the policy or the law. Each appraiser
26 shall be paid by the party selecting that appraiser. Other expenses of the appraisal 27 and the expenses of the umpire shall be divided and paid in equal shares by you and 28 this Company. If there is an appraisal award, all applicable policy terms, limits,
29 deductibles, and conditions shall apply. If you file a lawsuit relative to this policy

Proposed law defines "appraiser", "claimant", "good cause", "immediate family", "party", "umpire", and "umpire selection panel".

Proposed law requires an appraisal process under the following conditions:

Proposed law provides a registration process for interested appraisers. Further outlines the information for applicants to provide to the commissioner for registration.

Proposed law requires the commissioner to publish a list of appraisers on the Dept. of Insurance's website. Further provides for the list to contain the names, contact information, preferred types of claims, and preferred geographic areas of each appraiser.

Proposed law requires an appraiser to do all of the following:

- (1) Consider all information provided by the parties and any other reasonably available evidence material to the claim.
- (2) Carefully decide all issues submitted for determination regarding the amount of loss.
- (3) Give the parties and the other appraiser an itemized written appraisal.
- (4) Conduct the appraisal process to advance the fair and efficient resolution of the matter.

Proposed law prohibits appraisers from doing the following:

- (1) Permitting outside pressure to affect the appraisal.
- (2) Delegating the duty to decide to any other person.
- (3) Communicating with an umpire without including the other party or the other party's appraiser.
- (4) Charging the parties on a contingent fee basis, percentage of the decision, barter arrangement, gift, favor, or in-kind exchange.
- (5) Charging a fee for services if the appraiser withdraws or abandons the appraisal.

Proposed law requires an umpire to be either of the following:

- (1) A qualified appraiser.
- (2) An attorney licensed in the state of La. with experience in first-party property damage litigation.

Proposed law provides relative to conflicts of interest. Further requires an umpire to disclose any potential conflicts of interest.

Proposed law provides for the registration process for interested umpires. Further outlines the information for applicants to provide to the commissioner for registration.

Proposed law requires the commissioner to publish the list of umpires on the Dept. of Insurance's website. Further provides for the list to contain the names, contact information, preferred types of claims, and preferred geographic areas of each umpire.

Proposed law authorizes the commissioner to revoke the registration of an umpire under certain circumstances.

Proposed law provides for an umpire selection panel. Provides that if appraisers do not agree to an umpire from the umpire selection panel, each appraiser may object and may agree, in writing, to the commissioner selecting an umpire from the umpire selection panel using a random selection method. Further provides that if the appraisers do not both agree in writing to the random selection, a judge will appoint the umpire.

Proposed law provides the job responsibilities of an umpire, lists prohibited activities, and specifies all prohibited communications.

Proposed law requires each responsible party to pay the following:

- (1) His own appraiser fees and expenses.

- (2) Half of the reasonable and necessary costs incurred for the umpire's fee and expenses.
- (3) Half of any reasonable and necessary costs incurred to conduct the appraisal.

Proposed law prohibits parties from paying an appraiser or umpire on a contingent fee basis, percentage of the decision, barter arrangement, gift, favor, or in-kind exchange.

Proposed law provides for an extension of deadlines in certain circumstances.

Proposed law requires notices, requests, and other items submitted to the commissioner to be hand delivered, mailed, or sent in an otherwise acceptable manner.

Proposed law authorizes an appraiser or party to object to an umpire for good cause shown within 10 days after the party or appraiser receives the selection panel.

Present law requires residential property insurance policies to contain an appraisal clause and provides specific language. Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law applies to policies of property insurance issued, issued for delivery, or renewed on or after January 1, 2025.

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Insurance to the original bill:

1. Authorize a person aggrieved by a decision, act, or order of the commissioner to demand a hearing in accordance with the APA.
2. Provide that proposed law does not authorize the commissioner to regulate the practice of law.
3. Add a list of conflicts of interest that would disqualify an appraiser.
4. Remove the option for a judge to select an umpire from the list maintained by the commissioner. Require a judge to select an umpire qualified by proposed law.
5. Clarify proposed law to provide that if appraisers do not agree to an umpire from the umpire selection panel, each appraiser may object and may agree, in writing, to the commissioner selecting an umpire from the umpire selection panel using a random selection method. Further provide that if the appraisers do not both agree in writing to that selection, a judge will appoint the umpire.
6. Remove references to the commissioner's authority to appoint umpires.
7. Make technical changes.
