DIGEST

SB 283 Engrossed

2024 Regular Session

Duplessis

Present law defines crime against nature by solicitation as the solicitation by a human being of another with the intent to engage in any unnatural carnal copulation for compensation. Present law further provides that crime against nature by solicitation is punishable on a first conviction by a fine of up to $500, imprisonment for up to six months, or both. Present law further provides that a second or subsequent conviction is punishable by a fine between $250 and $2,000, imprisonment with or without hard labor for up to two years, or both. Present law further provides relative to sex offender registration and defenses to prosecution.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Effective August 1, 2024.
