Provides relative to seafood safety. (gov sig)

Present law provides for the creation and purpose of the Seafood Safety Task Force. Proposed law provides updates to the task force membership, expands the mission and purpose of the task force, provides for ongoing annual reporting to the legislature and governor, and identifies specific committees the task force may establish. Proposed law provides that the task force shall meet at least quarterly, and it shall meet at places throughout the state as it may designate to ensure participation. Proposed law provides that the staff of the Senate Committee on Health and Welfare shall provide support and assist the commission as requested by the chairman. Effective upon governor's signature.
