

2024 Regular Session

SENATE BILL NO. 345

BY SENATOR BARROW

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT. Provides for an extension for premiums due for homeowners' policies. (8/1/24)

1 AN ACT

2 To enact R.S. 22:1339, relative to cancellation of homeowner's policies; to provide a widow
3 an extension to pay the premiums for a homeowner's policy; and to provide for
4 related matters.

5 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

6 Section 1. R.S. 22:1339 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

7 §1339. Homeowner's insurance extension to pay premium; recently deceased
8 insured

9 An insurer providing property, casualty, or liability insurance shall
10 provide a recently widowed insured an extension of time not more than six
11 months to pay any premiums due for his homeowner's insurance policy.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Beth O'Quin.

DIGEST

SB 345 Engrossed

2024 Regular Session

Barrow

Proposed law requires an insurer writing certain property, casualty, and liability policies to provide a widowed insured additional time of not more than six months to pay any premiums due for his homeowner's insurance policy.

Effective August 1, 2024.

(Adds R.S. 22:1339)