DIGEST
2024 Regular Session

Miller

Proposed law provides that a filiation action pursuant to present law shall be a civil action brought in an ordinary proceeding under Book II of the C.C.P., and may be instituted separately or cumulated in a succession proceeding. Proposed law further provides that the mere commencement of a succession proceeding under Book VI of the C.C.P. shall not constitute the instituting of a filiation action for purposes of present law.

Proposed law provides that the provisions of proposed law shall be interpretive, procedural, and remedial.

Effective August 1, 2024.
