EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law provides for restrictions on how the department can use revenues or credits generated from the I-10 Calcasieu River Bridge Public-Private Partnership project. This measure does not create any new expenditures and only restricts how revenue is spent in the future. The Department of Transportation and Development notes that the restrictions provided for in this measure largely align with the provisions included in the comprehensive agreement with the developer. Proposed law would ensure that these restrictions remain in effect regardless of any future changes to the comprehensive agreement.

REVENUE EXPLANATION
