HR 75 Original

2024 Regular Session

Beaulieu

Abstract: Changes to the deadline for requests of legislative instruments to be prefiled or introduced during a regular session to no later than seventy-two hours prior to the applicable deadline.

Present House Rules provides procedures for prefiling legislative instruments and provides that request for legislation which is to be prefiled must be received by House Legislative Services (HLS) staff not later than 48 hours prior to the prefiling deadline applicable to the instrument being requested. Present House Rules further provides that during a regular session, a request for legislation which is to be introduced on the last day for introduction of matters having the effect of law shall be received by HLS staff not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day prior to the last day for introduction.

Proposed House Rule provides instead that a request for legislation which is to be prefiled for consideration during a regular session must be received by HLS staff not later than 72 hours prior to the prefiling deadline applicable to the instrument being requested, and that during a regular session, a request for legislation which is to be introduced on the last day for introduction of matters having the effect of law shall be received by HLS staff not later than 72 hours prior to the deadline for introduction.
