Subject: Reporting of Escapes from Juvenile Institutions

CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES EN NO IMPACT See Note
Provides for reporting of escapes from juvenile institutions. (8/1/24)

Current law provides for reporting requirements imposed on the Secretary of the Department of Public Safety & Corrections - Corrections Services in reporting escapes of juveniles from juvenile detention facilities; provides that a Superintendent or person in charge of a juvenile institution maintain a record and description of every escape from the juvenile institution; provides that the record list the date and time of the escape, number of offenders who escaped, offenses for which the escapees were placed at the institution, the name of each law enforcement agency notified of the escape, the time each law enforcement agency was notified and the name of the person receiving notice, and the name of the department employee or agent who notified the law enforcement agency. Proposed law extends the provisions of current law to facilities that house juvenile offenders on behalf of the state; requires notification of escapes to local media; requires that the Secretary of the Office of Juvenile Justice promulgate rules and regulations to ensure the immediate reporting of all escapes from juvenile institutions and facilities that house juvenile offenders on behalf of the state; requires the Secretary of the Office of Juvenile Justice to make available for public inspection and to local media, upon proper submission of a public records request, reports related to escapes from facilities that house juveniles.
