11 B. An insurer, in determining eligibility for coverage, establishing premiums, 12 limiting coverage, or making any other underwriting decisions, shall not do either 13 of the following:

14 (1) Take into consideration the fact that an individual or a family member 15 of the individual participated in genetic research or testing, including any request for 16 or receipt of genetic services or participation by an individual or family member in 17 clinical research or testing that includes genetic services, unless the results of that 18 genetic research or test are included in the individual's medical record or provided 19 by the individual for consideration by the insurer.
