Prior law prohibited the imposition of reinstatement fees for lapse of insurance coverage for a period of five days or less, if the violation is the insured's first.

New law extends the period prohibiting the imposition of reinstatement fees for the lapse of insurance coverage in prior law from five days or less to 10 days or less.

Existing law imposes reinstatement fees for violations in existing law as follows: $$ 250$ for the first violation, $$ 500$ for a second violation, and $$ 1,000$ for a third or subsequent violation. Specifies that a reinstatement fee not be owed for a violation when proof of the required security is provided to the secretary within 60 days of the date of the notice. Further specifies that persons having multiple violations within 60 days of notice that the total amount of fees may not exceed $$ 850$ for violations or $$ 1,075$ for certain violations in existing law.

Existing law specifies that the total fees for violations inclusive of administrative fees, not exceed $$ 250$ for persons 65 or older. Requires that after 60 days of the date of notice, all fees be considered delinquent debt, and the $$ 850$ limit for persons under 65 no longer applies.

Effective August 1, 2024.
