ACT 696 (HB 430)

2024 Regular Session

Existing law (R.S. 32:900(A)) provides that a "Motor Vehicle Liability Policy" means an owner's or operator's policy of liability insurance certified under existing law is issued by an insurance carrier duly authorized to transact business in this state.

New law provides an exception to existing law that allows for an owner of a vehicle registered in this state who obtains a valid motor vehicle liability policy issued in another state to have his policy be deemed valid proof of financial responsibility in this state.

Effective August 1, 2024.
