

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 48 (HB 52)

2025 Regular Session

Willard

Existing law requires each high school student to successfully complete a one-unit Financial Literacy course to be eligible to graduate from a public high school, receive a diploma, and qualify for certain financial aid.

Existing law specifies minimum content components of the course. New law adds a component: scholarships, grants, and other financial opportunities to pay for postsecondary education.

Effective August 1, 2025.
