EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law codifies the transfer of control of the Old Governor's Mansion from the Office of State Buildings to the Department of State Through an Interagency Transfer Agreement (IAT) agreement with the Division of Administration, Office of State Buildings that began on 7/01/23, the Department of State is currently responsible for payment of utilities, preventative maintenance, repairs, security and fire alarm systems, grounds maintenance, pest control, and janitorial/trash services for the Old Governor's Mansion. Since FY 23, the department has received a sufficient appropriation to support the operations and management of the Old Governor's Mansion.
