HB 177 Engrossed

2026 Regular Session

Muscarello

Abstract: Excepts official court reporters from the two-year prohibition on rendering services on a contractual basis to a former public employer after termination from public service.

Present law provides that no former public employee shall, for a period of two years following the termination of his public employment, assist another person for compensation in a transaction in which the former public employee participated in at any time during his public employment and involving the governmental entity by which he was formerly employed. Further provides that a former public employee shall not, for a period of two years following the termination of public service, render any service which the former public employee had rendered to the agency during the term of his public employment on a contractual basis.

Present law provides an exception for a former employee of the La. School for the Deaf to render sign language and interpreting services on a contractual basis to or for the La. School for the Deaf.

Present law additionally provides an exception for a former sexual assault nurse examiner to render services on a contractual basis to or for his former public employer.

Proposed law adds an additional exception for a former official court reporter to render services on a contractual basis to or for his former public employer.
