HB 202 Engrossed

2026 Regular Session

McMakin

Abstract: Requires salary information to be included within a job announcement for a vacant classified state civil service position and provides for a notice of rejection to be sent to applicants.

Proposed law requires the Dept. of State Civil Service to list the salary or salary range of a vacant classified position within the job announcement.

Proposed law provides that if an individual applies for a vacant classified position posted by the Dept. of State Civil Service and the individual is rejected, the Dept. is required to notify the individual of the rejection.
