13 entirety and insert the following:

14 "J.(1) Crimes of violence and human trafficking offenses. Notwithstanding 15 the provisions of Paragraph G of this Article and notwithstanding any other provision 16 of law to the contrary, if the defendant is alleged to have committed a crime of 17 violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B), human trafficking in violation of R.S. 14:46.2, 18 or trafficking of children for sexual purposes in violation of R.S. 14:46.3, the court 19 shall require as a condition of bail that the defendant refrain from going to the 20 residence or household of the victim, the victim's school, and the victim's place of 21 employment or otherwise contacting the victim in any manner whatsoever, and shall 22 refrain from having any further contact with the victim. The court shall also require 23 as a condition of bail that the defendant be prohibited from communicating, by 24 electronic communication, in writing, or orally, with a victim of the offense, or with 25 any of the victim's immediate family members. This condition does not apply if the 26 victim consents by way of a request to the court and the court issues an order
27 permitting the communication. If an immediate family member of the victim 28 consents by way of a request to the court and the court issues an order permitting the 29 communication, then the defendant may contact that person.
