1 AN ACT

2 To enact R.S. 47:1703(E), relative to the homestead exemption; to provide for an extension
3 of the homestead exemption when property is damaged or destroyed during a disaster 4 or emergency declared by the governor; to provide for an effective date; and to 5 provide for related matters.

6 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

7 Section 1. R.S. 47:1703(E) is hereby enacted to read as follows:

8 §1703. Exemptions

9 * * *

10 E. Property damaged during a disaster or emergency. (1) Any homestead 11 receiving the homestead exemption that is damaged or destroyed during a disaster 12 or emergency declared by the governor whose owner is unable to occupy the 13 homestead shall be entitled to claim the exemption by filing with the assessor of the 14 parish in which the homestead was located, an affidavit of intent to return and 15 reoccupy the homestead within a period of five years from December thirty-first of 16 the tax year in which the disaster occurred. In no event shall more than one 17 homestead exemption extend or apply to any person in this state.

18 (2) Any owner entitled to the special assessment level set forth in Article 19 VII, Section 18(G) of the Constitution of Louisiana who is unable to occupy the

1 homestead on or before December thirty-first of a future calendar year due to 2 damage or destruction of the homestead caused by a disaster or emergency declared 3 by the governor shall be entitled to keep the special assessment level of the 4 homestead prior to its damage or destruction on the repaired or rebuilt homestead 5 provided the repaired or rebuilt homestead is occupied by the owner within five 6 years from December thirty-first of the year following the disaster. The assessed 7 value of the land and buildings on which the homestead was located prior to its 8 damage shall not be increased above its assessed value immediately prior to the 9 damage or destruction described in this Paragraph. If the property owner receives 10 a homestead exemption on another homestead during the same five-year period, the 11 damaged or destroyed property shall not be entitled to keep the special assessment 12 level, and the land and buildings shall be assessed in that year at the percentage of 13 fair market value set forth in the constitution. In addition, the owner must also 14 maintain the homestead exemption set forth in Article VII, Section 20(A)(10) of the 15 Constitution of Louisiana to qualify for the special assessment level set forth in 16 Article VII, Section 18(G)(5) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

17 Section 2. This Act shall take effect and become operative if and when the proposed 18 amendment of Article VII, Section 18(G)(5) and Article VII, Section 20(A)(10) of the 19 Constitution of Louisiana contained in the Act which originated as House Bill No. ____ of 20 this 2005 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature is adopted at the statewide election
21 to be held on February 4, 2006, and at the same time as such proposed amendment becomes 22 effective.

HB No. 46

Abstract: Provides for the continuation of the homestead exemption and special assessments where the homestead is damaged due to gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency.

Proposed law provides that any homestead receiving the homestead exemption that is damaged or destroyed during a gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency whose owner is unable to occupy the homestead shall be entitled to claim the exemption by filing with the assessor an affidavit of intent to return and reoccupy the homestead within a period of five years from Dec. 31 of the tax year in which the disaster occurred.

Proposed law provides that no more than one homestead exemption shall extend or apply to any person in this state.

Proposed law provides that any owner entitled to the special assessment level set forth in Art. VII, §18(G) of the La. Constitution who is unable to occupy the homestead on or before Dec. 31 of a future calendar year due to damage or destruction of the homestead caused by a gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency shall be entitled to keep the special assessment level provided the repaired or rebuilt homestead is occupied by the owner within five years from Dec. 31 of the year following the disaster. The assessed value of the land and buildings on which the homestead was located prior to its damage shall not be increased above its assessed value immediately prior to the damage or destruction.

Proposed law provides that if the property owner receives a homestead exemption on another homestead during the same five-year period, the damaged or destroyed property shall not be entitled to keep the special assessment level.

Proposed law provides that the owner must also maintain the homestead exemption set forth in Art. VII, §20(A)(10) to qualify for the special assessment level.

Effective and operative if and when the proposed amendments to the constitution contained in HB _____ of the 2005 1st E.S. is adopted at the statewide election to be held on Feb. 4, 2006.
