HB No. 28

Abstract: Provides that no person shall have a cause of action against any law enforcement agency or officer based on his detention in a parish prison or local jail for a period of time in excess of that required by the Code of Criminal Procedure or Title 15 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 when the failure to release was due to the effects of Hurricane Katrina or Rita.

Present law provides that neither the state nor any political subdivision thereof, nor other agencies, nor, except in case of willful misconduct, the agents' employees or representatives of any of them engaged in any homeland security and emergency preparedness activities, while complying with or attempting to comply with the provisions of the Louisiana Homeland Security and Emergency Assistance and Disaster Act or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to those provisions shall be liable for the death of or any injury to persons or damage to property as a result of such activity.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that no person detained or incarcerated in any parish prison or local jail operated shall have a cause of action for damages against the sheriff, law enforcement agency, or employee thereof based solely on his detention in such prison or jail for a period of time in excess of that required by the Code of Criminal Procedure or Title 15 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 and which was caused by the impact of Hurricane Katrina or Hurricane Rita, unless there is a willful failure to release the prisoner upon a lawful order of the court, order of release from the district attorney, or pursuant to bail as authorized by law.

Proposed law provides for retroactive application to August 29, 2005.

Effective upon signature or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 29:735(A))
