TAX CREDITS: Authorizes Louisiana Community Development Financial Institutions to include investments in areas affected by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

Relative to the Louisiana Community Development Financial Institution Act, the proposed law expands the definition of "low-income community" to include any community located in an area with respect to which a major disaster has been declared by the president under Section 401 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act by reason of Hurricane Katrina or Rita. Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure. The Revenue Estimating Conference has already included the maximum tax credits allowable under current law into its forecast. As such, expanding the geographical areas eligible for participation in this program will have no affect on the current state revenue forecast.
