
The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Tim Prather.

DIGEST

Requests the various privately or publicly owned public utilities throughout the state, who are licensed and regulated by any department or agency of the state, to delay the collection of their monthly residential public utilities user fees that are due for payment in December, 2005, for those individuals in certain hurricane affected areas of the state.