14 H. For an election held within one year following the date of the issuance of 15 any gubernatorial proclamation declaring a state of emergency, if a parish board of 16 election supervisors determines that there is a parishwide shortage of absentee by 17 mail and early voting commissioners because a significant number of absentee by 18 mail and early voting commissioners have been temporarily displaced due to such 19 emergency, the board may submit a written request to the secretary of state for 20 additional absentee by mail and early voting commissioners from other parishes in 21 the same manner as provided in R.S. 18:425(A)(4). Approval, selection, training, 22 and reimbursement of expenses of such absentee by mail and early voting 23 commissioners shall also be in the same manner as provided in R.S. 18:425(A)(4).
